Khajuraho

One of the most popular tourist destinations in India. It has the largest group of Medieval Hindu and Jain Temples, famous for their erotic Sculptures.

Kandariya Mahodeo, the largest and most typical of the Khajuraho temples is dedicated to Shiva. The main shrine is exquisitely carved and features delicate details. The temples dedicated to various gods and goddesses bear friezes depicting not only celestial beings but also portraying the everyday life and culture of a highly civilized people. The erotic theme prevails in an array of sculptures of amorous couples in the most intimate and extraordinarily varied postures of sensual love.

Jhansi-Orcha

Orchha lies on the Betwa River, 80 km from Tikamgarh & 15 km from Jhansi in Uttar Pradesh.

This Place contains three palaces - The Raj Mahal, Rai Parveen Mahal, Jahangir Mahal - each built by succeeding Maharajas in a similar style and combining to form a complex as imposing as that at Udaipur. Also visit Ram Raja Temple & Chaturbhuj Temple.

Agra

Agra is the city of the Taj Mahal, perhaps the most photographed monument in the world. However, no matter how many pictures you have seen or no matter how high your expectations are, the Taj never lets you down - the unparalleled glory and beauty of the building surpasses beyond all human imaginations. (TAJ MAHAL CLOSED ON FRIDAYS). Visit the Agra Fort containing the Pearl Mosque, the Halls of Public and Private Audience. Also visit the Tomb of Itmad-ud-Daullah built by Empress Noorjehan in memory of her father.

Ranthambore

Fatehpur Sikri named as the ghost city. Built by great Mugal Emperor Akbar, as his capital but after few years abandoned due to scarcity of water. The whole city is built of Red Sand Stone.

Later continue your drive to Ranthambore. Ranthambore National Park encompasses an area of 410 sq km in which lives a healthy population of about 40 tigers. A large number of deer inhabit the area and leopards are occasionally sighted. Ranthambore is known to have India's Friendliest tigers assured of
